

2011 Handwork Teachers Conference

The “I” of the Needle

Rudolf Steiner called Handwork: “gymnastics in miniature”. In this workshop designed especially for Handwork Teachers, we will explore the “gymnastic” movements inherent in our craft through interspersing handwork techniques with games, exercises and “inner-cises”. Pedagogical processes will be playfully explored, moving between the small and the large, the large and the small.

The wisdom of the handwork curriculum will be revealed through experiencing the weaving of the physical, emotional, and intellectual development of the growing individual. Don't worry! You don't have to be a “gymnast” to join this course, nor do you have to be an “expert” in Handwork to enjoy it. Just be ready to have your world turned inside out! We promise to keep you in stitches!
