“The Meeting”

A Spatial Dynamics Seminar

October 23 – 27, 2011
Vancouver, BC

To meet another person openly and fairly is perhaps the greatest of all movements . . .

Spatial Dynamics® is the study of the interplay between the human being and space. Come and learn more about your own “personal” space in spatially-oriented movement exercises and activities. If you are an educator, administrator, business leader, or caregiver; a parent, life coach, medical practitioner, or therapist ... or you want to pursue a path of self development, this program has something for you.

Jaimen McMillan, founder and director of the Spatial Dynamics Institute, works world-wide in the field of movement. He will present his unique approach to space and spatial awareness, challenging us to think, feel, and act in new and exciting ways.

Sessions will be held at Rosemary Heights Retreat Centre in South Surrey. We begin at 7:30 pm on the first evening and conclude at 12:00 noon on the last day. The seminar fee is $700 (plus applicable tax). In addition there is a charge for meals and accommodation options. Interested participants may elect to receive credit towards SDI Level 1 certification.
