

Calendar of Events 2004

January 15-18, 2004:

German In-Service Training Program, Stuttgart, Germany

January 28-February 1, 2004:

Graduate session: Pain. 8:00PM, Hudson/UpRiver site, Mechanicville, NY
Pain is consciousness stuck in the wrong place, in body, soul, or spirit. In moving to a spatial understanding of pain, one can begin to objectify one of the most subjective of all experiences. Techniques will be explored for dealing with one's own pain, and for helping others learn to manage their own.

February 20-21, 2004:

Workshop and lecture with Jaimen McMillan in Chattanooga, TN. For more information, please call Bill Keener at 423-942-9201.

March 4-7, 2004:

German In-Service Training Program, Stuttgart, Germany

March 12, 2004:

"Space to Play", Lecture with Jaimen McMillan, at the Austin Waldorf School in Austin, TX. For more information please contact the school at 512-288-5942.

March 13-18, 2004

IS-7: spring session, Austin, TX. It is still possible to join this course! For more information, please call the SDI office at 518-695-6377.

March 19-21, 2004:

Workshops and lecture with Jaimen McMillan in Vancouver, BC. For more information please contact Graham Oslund at 604-987-3407.

March 20, 2004:

All in Peace Presentation and Fundraiser with Jaimen McMillan. 7PM at the SoulScape Studio, 303, 106 1st Street, North Vancouver, BC. For more information, please call 604-988-5221, ext. 0.

March 22-24, 2004:

Lectures and workshops with Jaimen McMillan for medical professionals and general public, Portland, OR. For more information please contact Drs. Joan and John Takacs at 503-234-1531.

March 23, 2004:

Movement as the Basis for Learning, Lecture with Jaimen McMillan. Portland Waldorf School, Portland, OR, 7:00PM. For more information, please contact the Portland Waldorf School at 503-654-2200.

March 24-28, 2004:

Graduate session: Pain. Portland, OR. Begin: 8:00PM on Wed. March 24th.
Pain is consciousness stuck in the wrong place, in body, soul, or spirit. In moving to a spatial understanding of pain, one can begin to objectify one of the most subjective of all experiences. Techniques will be explored for dealing with one's own pain, and for helping others learn to manage their own.

March 28- April 2, 2004:

IS-5W: spring session, Portland, OR

April 2-3, 2004:

Lecture and workshop with Jaimen McMillan, Seattle, WA. For more information please contact Tim Bennett at 206-545-9001.

April 12-17, 2004:

IS-5E: spring session, Hudson/UpRiver site, Mechanicville, NY

April 18-23, 2004:

IS-6: spring session, Hudson/UpRiver site, Mechanicville, NY]

April 23, 2004:

The Invisible Factor: Etudes in Mime and Music, with Jackie Davis and Gili Melamed-Lev; 7:30PM, Camphill Village, Copake, NY. A portion of the proceeds to benefit the Spatial Dynamics Institute. For more information please contact Laura Geilen at 518-325-7659.

April 24, 2004:

An Invitation to discover All in Peace, with Jaimen McMillan, co-director of this exciting international project. 7:00PM, Clifton Park, NY. To RSVP, and for directions, please contact us at 518-695-6377.

April 27, 2004:

Lecture with Jaimen McMillan. Monadnock Waldorf School, Keene, NY. For further information, please contact the school at 603-357-4442

April 29-May 2, 2004:

German In-Service Training Program, Stuttgart, Germany

May 21-22, 2004:

Public Workshop: Moved to Learn, with Jaimen McMillan. Hudson/UpRiver Site, Mechanicville, NY.

Learning is more than collecting new information. It is throwing away old concepts, turning things inside out, standing the 'known' on its head... in short: moving in a new way! In this workshop we will learn how children learn. We will play. We will learn how adults learn. We will play. We will learn to build spaces where we can be

Moved To Learn.

For more information, please contact SDI at 518-695-6377.

June 10-13, 2004:

German In-Service Training Program, Stuttgart, Germany

June 15-19, 2004:

Graduate Session: Movement Mastery, Hudson/UpRiver site, Mechanicville, NY
Yes, there are educational and therapeutic aspects of movement... and then, there is the art of movement, movement for itself. This course is designed for those who love to move and want to increase their own mastery of movement. Artistic presentation, transformation of the performing space, choreography of Bothmer Gymnastics, Spacial Dynamics exercises, and dance will form the core of this course. In addition, Dorothea McMillan will supplement this artistic work with classes in Eurythmy.

June 20-30, 2004:

IS-7: summer session. This session takes place at the Hudson/UpRiver site, Mechanicville, NY

August 4-15, 2004:

IS-5: final session. Hudson/UpRiver site, Mechanicville, NY

August 14, 2004:

IS-5 Commencement and Graduation Performance, 7:00PM, Hudson/UpRiver site, Mechanicville, NY

August 16-26, 2004

IS-6: summer session, Hudson/UpRiver site, Mechanicville, NY

September 10-12, 2004

Graduate session with Jaimen McMillan. Michael Hall, UK

September 16-19, 2004:

German In-Service Training Program, Stuttgart, Germany

October 1-5, 2004:

Graduate Session: The Hand and Arm. Hudson/UpRiver Site, Mechanicville, NY. We will begin at 8PM on Fri. and end at noon on Tue.

The hand is a sense organ that can perceive, enliven, and sculpt the Pattern Body in the direction of wholeness. The course is not only for those who want to specialize in a Spacial Dynamics approach to Movement Therapy and learn techniques to merge, move, and meditate new ways. It is also designed for educators and other professionals who want to awaken slumbering possibilities in their gestures, touch, and perception of destiny.

October 15-20, 2004:

New Training Program in Spacial Dynamics begins at the Hudson/UpRiver Site, Mechanicville, NY. For more information, please contact the SDI office at 518-695-6377.

October 22-27, 2004:

IS-6 fall session. Hudson/UpRiver Site, Mechanicville, NY

November 5-7, 2004:

Experiencing the Etheric, public workshop with Dennis Klocek and Jaimen McMillan.

November 14-19, 2004:

New Training Program in Spacial Dynamics begins in Portland, OR. For more information, please contact the SDI office at 518-695-6377.

November 19-23, 2004:

Graduate Course: The Hand and Arm. Portland, OR. We will begin at 8PM on Fri. and end at noon on Tue.

The hand is a sense organ that can perceive, enliven, and sculpt the Pattern Body in the direction of wholeness. The course is not only for those who want to specialize in a Spacial Dynamics approach to Movement Therapy and learn techniques to merge, move, and meditate new ways. It is also designed for educators and other professionals who want to awaken slumbering possibilities in their gestures, touch, and perception of destiny.

December 9-12, 2004:

German In-Service Training Program, Stuttgart, Germany